Dear Sir:

I have your letter of February 20th. I do not know how to answer it except to refer you to the articles in the issues of THE PRESBYTERIAN of December 17 and 24, 1931 by Rev. H. Clare Welker. He made an exhaustive examination and I think produced very excellent papers. I think if you would write to the Board of Christian Education, Witherspoon Building, Philadelphia, they would send you a complete set as there is certainly no secret about them.

Yours very sincerely,

WCR*E

Dear Sir:

I would certainly appreciate very much if you will send me such literature in connection with the Westminister graded lessons, which will help me in making an analysis of same.

Dec 17-24

From what I have read and heard it perhaps is not the best and if you could forward me copies of the recent issues containing the critical analysis and also any other report, I shall be very happy to receive same and will gladly pay the expenses.

My recent letter to you on this subject shows on what side of the fence I stand and last night I stood alone against a group of 23 people.

This letter is not to be published in your magazine.

I think there is such a wave of modernistic tendencies and substituting topics for real Bible studies that I want to have all data on my finger tips to equip myself for our next session meeting.

Please rush this information and you may rest assured that the expense will be promptly met.

WJN:DG

Very truly yours

My dear Doctor,

Having just read "The Delaware Republican", I learned that your illness is turning out more serious than we hoped. I noted that you had the flu but concluded that your splendid vitality had brought you back to health.

I am exceedingly distressed at this malady which has afflicted your eye. I have so much respect for your diligent professional work and I have so much pleasure in our rare conversations together that I am deeply concerned. I want you to know that my heart is with you as I know that a great host of friends will show their kindness. You have ministered to hundreds and thousands and I hope that all the fruitage of that ministry will now be brought to you as a comfort in these days.

With kind regards to Mrs. Ormiston and sincere appreciation of your qualities, I am

Dear Mr. Norton:

I have your article on the Filipinos by Norman H. Camp. I like what Mr. Camp writes very much indeed. I think we can find space for it before very long and I think it has peculiar interest just now.

Very cordially yours,

WCR*E

Dear Dr. Robinson:

If you can possibly make room in your columns for the publication of the enclosed article, it will be greatly appreciated, and will give your readers some information as to the present situation in the Philippines.

Out of a population of over twelve million, about one-half can read or understand the English language. Over one million young people attend the public schools where English is taught, and they are anxious for reading matter in that language. For this and other reasons, it is an opportune time to reach them with the Gospel message.

Thanking you heartily for such co-operation as you can give and with very best wishes, believe us,

Sincerely yours,

Wm. Norton,

Dear Sir:

We take great pleasure in sending you a copy of the new edition of HELPS TO THE STUDY OF THE BIBLE, for the purpose of review in your paper. The book will be published by us on January 7, 1932. Its price is to be $3.00.

As you know, the earlier edition enjoyed a very large distribution, but there has been an insistent demand for a revision, so that it might be brought up to date.

It would be much appreciated if it could be arranged to have the review in your paper appear on or about the publication date mentioned above.

Cordially yours,
